

Kiah 20037 Staff Impression

Kiah is handsome with an oval face, broad nose, full lips, and high cheekbones that give him a strong, masculine look. His deep brown eyes and long, dark dreadlocks complement his warm, rich brown skin. Standing at 6" with a noticeably muscular build and broad shoulders, Kiah looks exceptionally fit and athletic.

Kiah is driven by optimism and resilience. He has a bachelor's degree in chemistry and is pursuing a master's in environmental health physics. This showcases his analytical mind and commitment to science. He has a passion for world history, finance, sci-fi topics, scientific discoveries, music, sports podcasts, and anime. He also played the alto saxophone for eight years, giving him the opportunity to express a creative side. Caring and friendly, he values close friendships and family bonds. He draws from his close relationship with his parents and his role as the oldest sibling to emphasize looking out for loved ones. His goal is financial freedom to explore the world. Kiah finds fulfillment in knowing that his contribution as a donor supports others' happiness.
