

Braxton has medium blonde hair, light-blue eyes, fair skin, strong brows, a well-defined jaw, and full lips. Spending much of his free time outdoors, he enjoys hiking, mountain climbing and sailing which is his primary pastime. Motivated by his time spent on the water, he has actively participated as a volunteer to reduce marine pollution.

Braxton is a strong logical thinker with a lot of technological savvy. Intelligent, analytical, determined, and hard-working, he is currently completing coursework to obtain a degree in Physics. He holds himself to high standards in all his pursuits. Although he is serious and quiet, he is a good conversationalist who lights up when talking about his interests and hobbies.
