

Ronin has dark brown hair, brown eyes, and light olive skin. He is an intelligent and athletic donor with a cheerful disposition, an ever-present smile, and uniquely optimistic perspective. He enjoys challenges in both his work and leisure time. He utilizes both his creativity and organizational skills in his career as an architect. He stays active fit by commuting by bike and spending his free time rock climbing and snowboarding. Not letting any of his creativity go to waste, he is also a talented home chef, baker, leatherworker, and woodworker. He enjoys designing and creating things no matter how large or small and has no shortage of the energy, passion, or drive needed for all his many undertakings.

Ronin describes himself as “kind, assertive, creative, organized and adventurous,” and we agree!
