

Staff Impression: Duy

Duy is average height with a more than average personality! He has a lean, muscular build that is directly related to his love for competitive dancing, which he regularly participates in. He has straight black hair that is always styled, and friendly brown eyes and an inviting smile full of bright white teeth. He has flawless olive skin with a moderate tan. All these characteristics make Duy a very attractive young man.

Duy has a degree in Environmental Design and currently obtaining his Masters Degree in Architecture. He excels at calculus, speaks both Vietnamese and English fluently and loves to draw, paint and design. Duy also loves to sing, dance and cooking is a passion of his. At least once a week, he's trying a new recipe for his friends and family to try. Duy is a social butterfly; one who is outgoing and friendly to every single person he meets. He has an incredible drive to do the best he can and an eagerness to learn new things. He is creative, driven, enthusiastic and most importantly a compassionate. He puts others needs before himself and pulls happiness from making others around him smile. He is a true asset to our donor program.
