

Staff Impression: Emerson

Emerson has a very symmetrical face and handsome features. He has thick, long dark brown hair that is usually up in a bun and deep brown eyes. He has a beautiful medium skin tone with olive undertones, a few freckles, an oval face, and a large, wide smile with straight white teeth. Emerson has a medium build and stays in great shape without looking overly athletic.

Emerson is personable and fun. He participates in many different activities like running, backpacking, and music. He plays the piano and guitar as well as worked in FM radio for a few years and currently writes for and manages a music blog. Emerson is a dreamer and a deep thinker but it also very logical and has a strong work ethic. He has his degree in Economics, Political Science and Philosophy and is currently working towards his Masters in Library and Information Science.
