

Petya Staff Impression:

Petya has medium skin, straight black hair and inviting green brown eyes. He is 6'1" and being a competitive swimmer, has an athletic physique. He enjoys swimming, hiking, and camping outdoors. Petya is also a big fan of comedy, frequenting improv classes and learning to get up on stage to showcase his creative talent. Alongside his creative and athletic endeavors, he is also very much ensuing a future in academia. He is currently working in an immunology laboratory studying the effects of e-cigarettes. He plans on achieving a Ph.D. in his field where can continue research and become a professor.

His morals of hard work and perseverance are evident in his actions and achievements. Petya, with his exceptional work ethic and aura of talent, is yet an incredibly humble and easy to talk to individual. He is always an example of compassion, respect, and the epitome of being "down to earth."