

Barnaby is an adept conversationalist with a quick wit, friendly chuckles. His face lights up when he is talking about his favorite bands, his own musical pursuits, and his experiences traveling. It's very easy to feel comfortable around Barnaby as he is exceptionally friendly and polite. He has a very well rounded personality as he balances being both laidback and lively. Upon meeting him it is apparent that he has great taste in various kinds of art, especially music.

Barnaby has a lean, athletic, build and a medium skin tone. He keeps his sandy blonde hair at a medium length which shows off his loose waves and he keeps a short beard, both of which compliment his effortlessly cool and casual style. His good bone structure and welcoming smile make for a look that is both rugged and inviting.