

Qais 11018 Staff Impression

Qais is a tall, athletic young man standing at 6'0". He has warm olive skin, deep brown eyes, and thick, dark-brown curly hair that has great volume and texture. His neatly trimmed full beard frames a strong, defined jawline. His build is muscular and proportionate from years of consistent training. Qais has broad shoulders and a poised, relaxed appearance. His symmetrical, masculine features include full lips and large, round eyes.

Qais is an outgoing, high-energy person whose optimism and enthusiasm make everyone around him feel comfortable. With Middle Eastern roots, he is fluent in both Arabic and English. He is currently working toward a Biochemistry degree on a pre-med track and maintains an impressive 3.5 GPA. He is deeply dedicated to fitness, training consistently for over seven years in weightlifting, MMA, boxing, and team sports. Qias also has a strong interest in video production, photography, and creating engaging social media content. People describe him as disciplined, caring, growth-minded, and sociable. He enjoys having deep conversations, making others laugh, and pursuing personal growth. He is warmhearted, responsible, and genuinely enjoys helping others, which is why he is excited to make donations that give recipients the gift of family.