

Walsh 14333

Walsh is compassionate, selfless, empathetic, and handsome as can be. He is tall and very physically fit, with beautiful hazel eyes and brown hair, as well as complimenting facial structure including high cheeks bones and a defined jaw line. Walsh is an outstanding guy, and has done so much already in his lifetime, including serving in the military. His service led him to his passion for helping other veterans, and he hopes to one day run a fly-fishing camp for those suffering from PTSD. Additionally, he plans to further his intelligence in business, in hopes of owning his own.

Walsh is not only intelligent and goal oriented but is creative as well. We enjoy viewing his photography and were impressed to hear that he has published a photography portfolio and he was able to raise substantial proceeds for a veteran's charity. We are constantly surprised by Walsh's humble attitude, and willingness to serve others. We are truly grateful to have him and recommend him for any family!
